

ESI Funds for health

Building knowledge & capacities

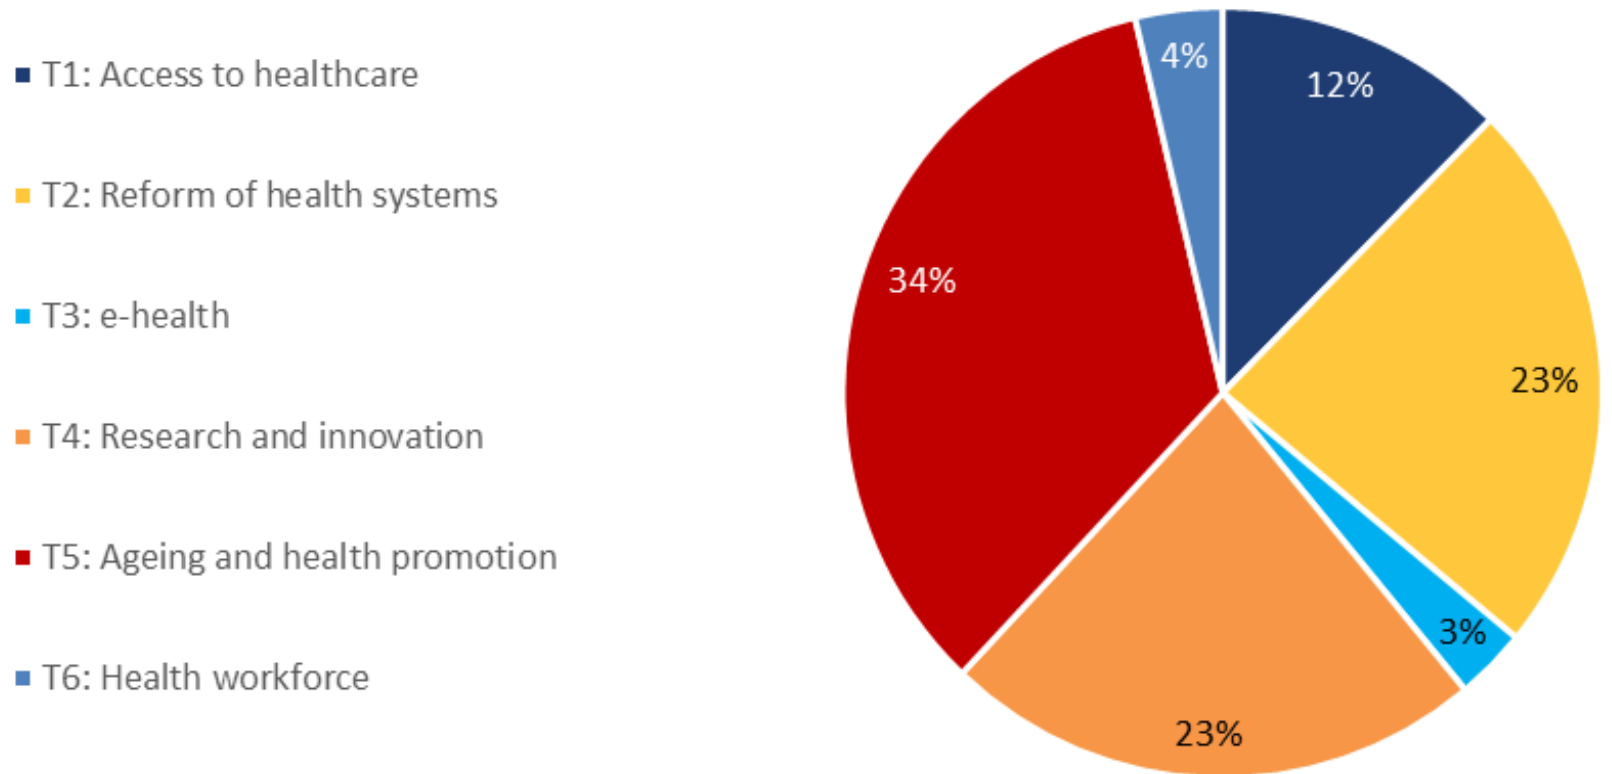

ESI Funds for Health

Investing for a healthy and inclusive EU

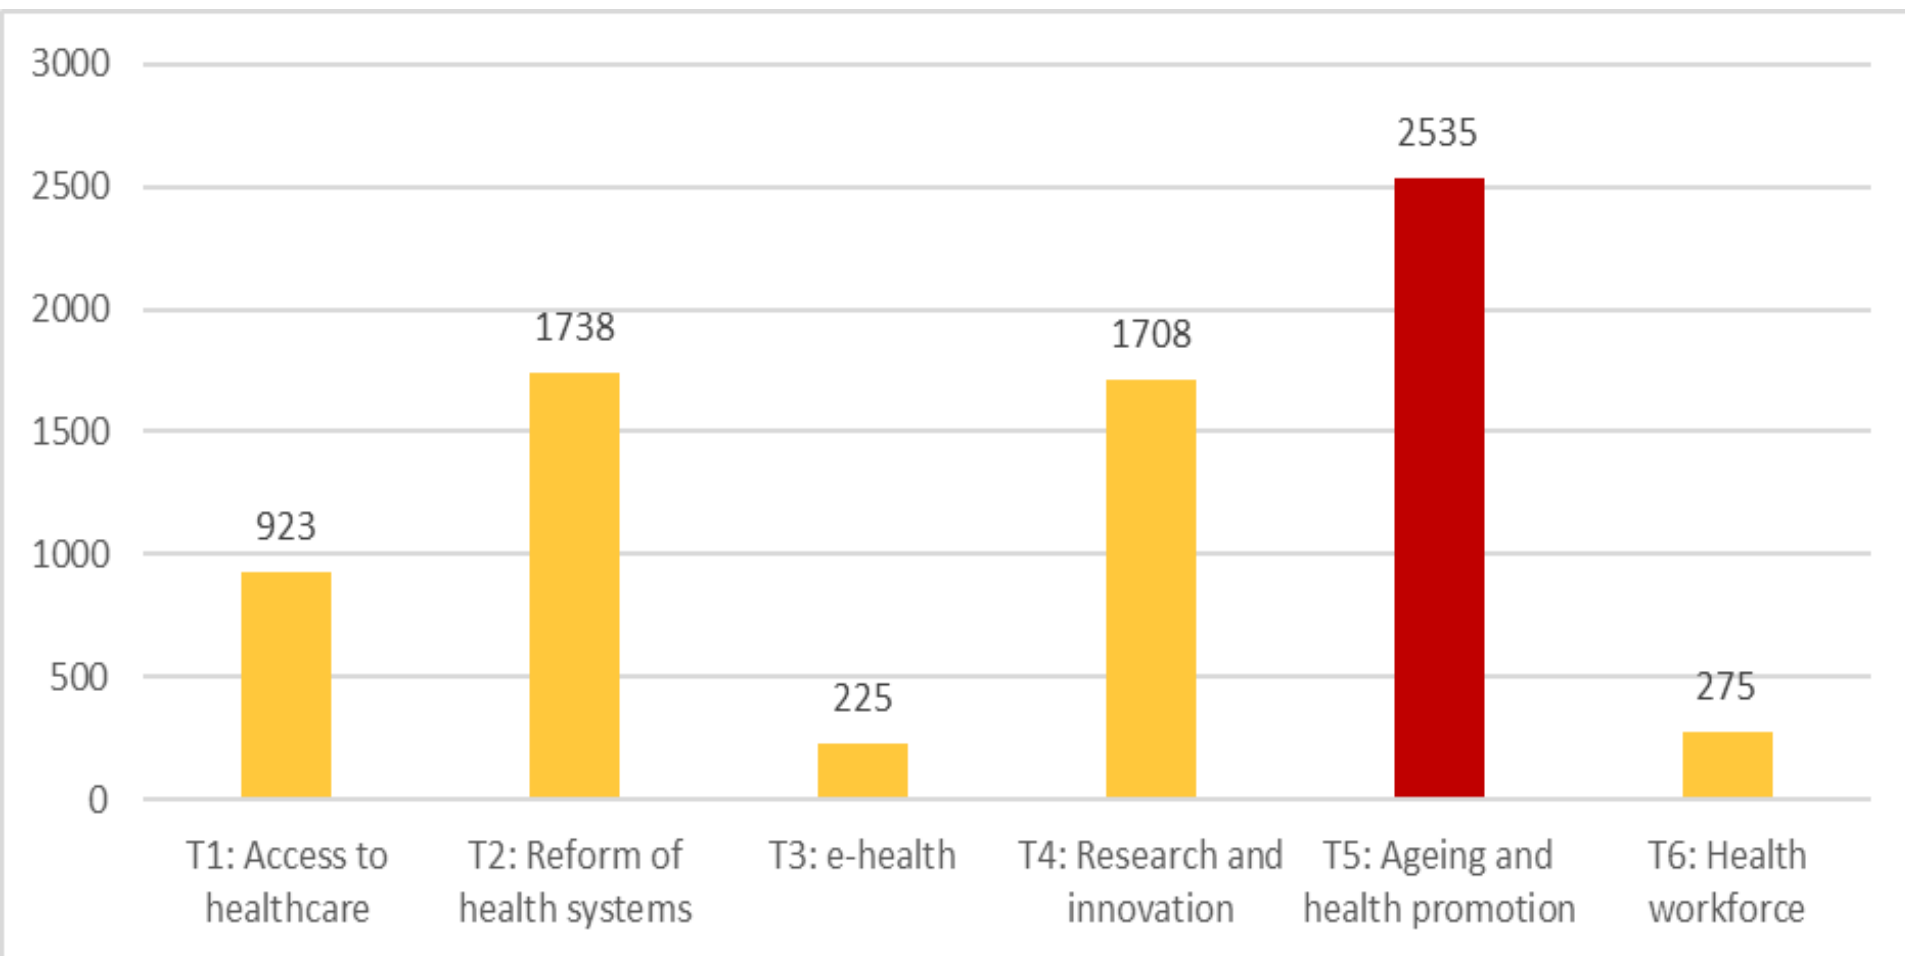

Mapping health promotion investments across the EU

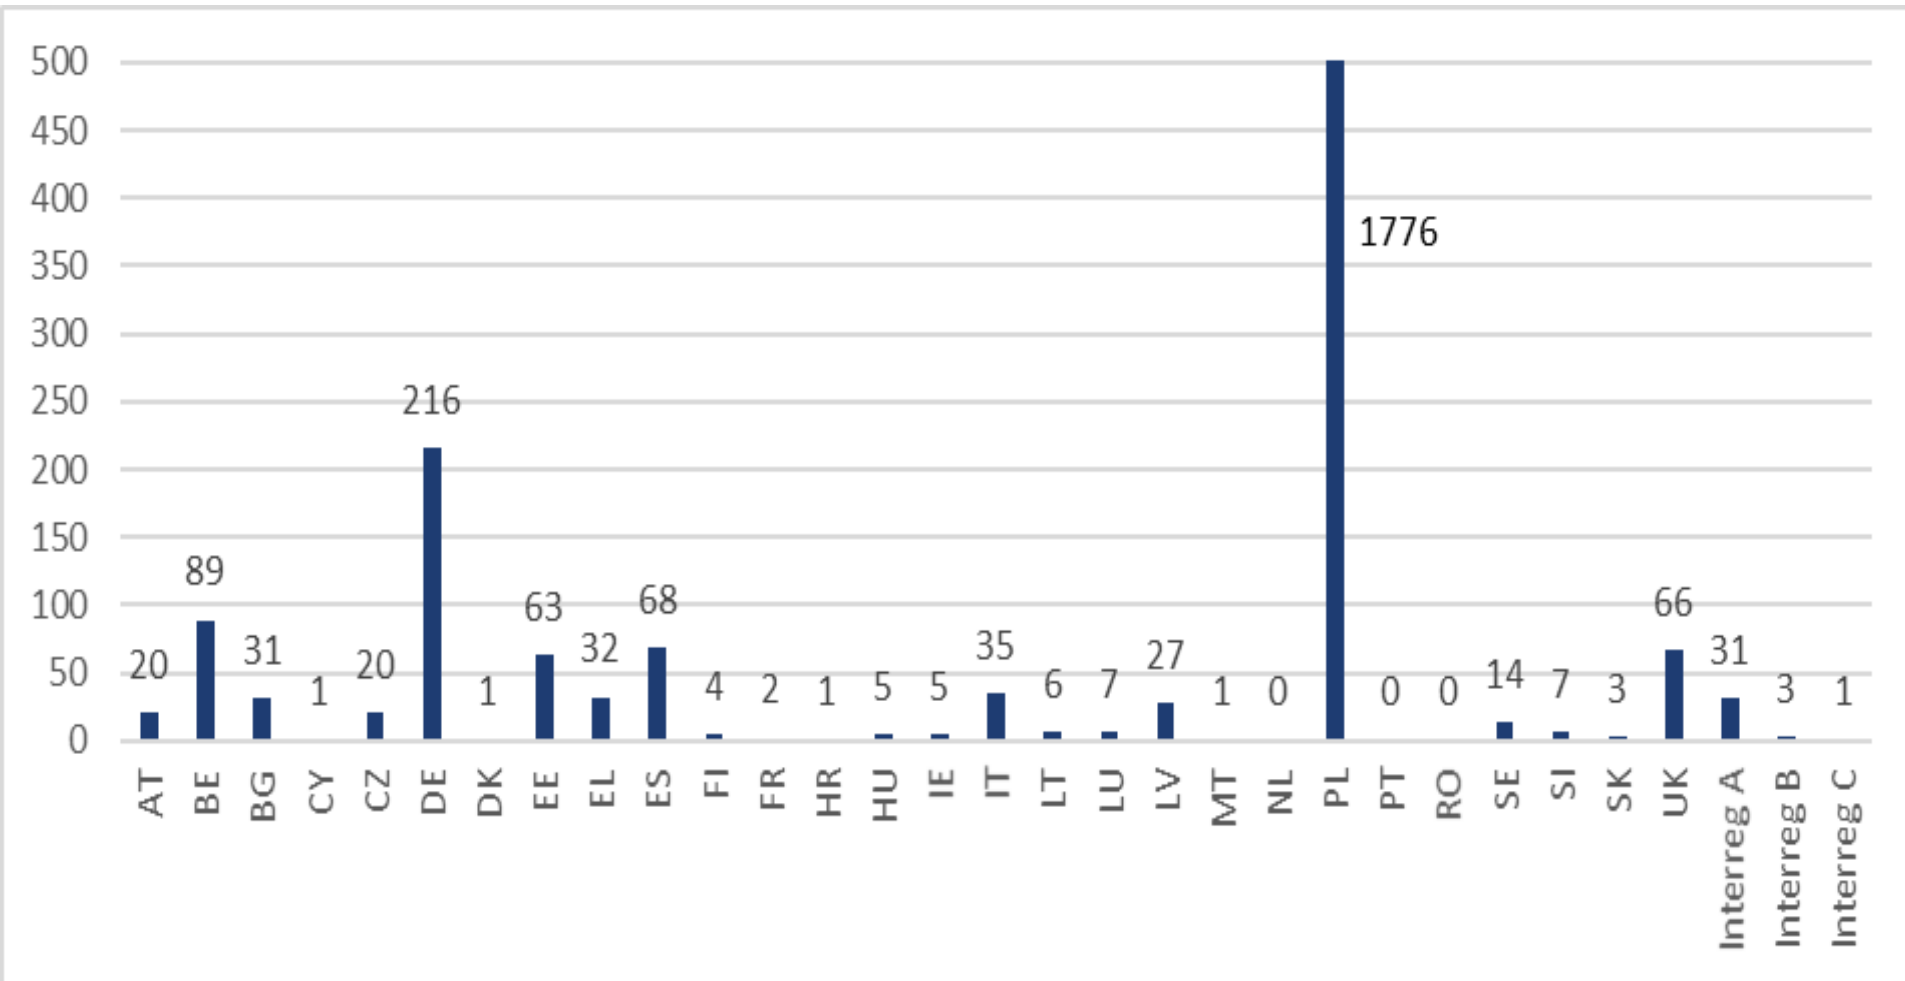

ESI-funded health projects were classified in six health-related themes

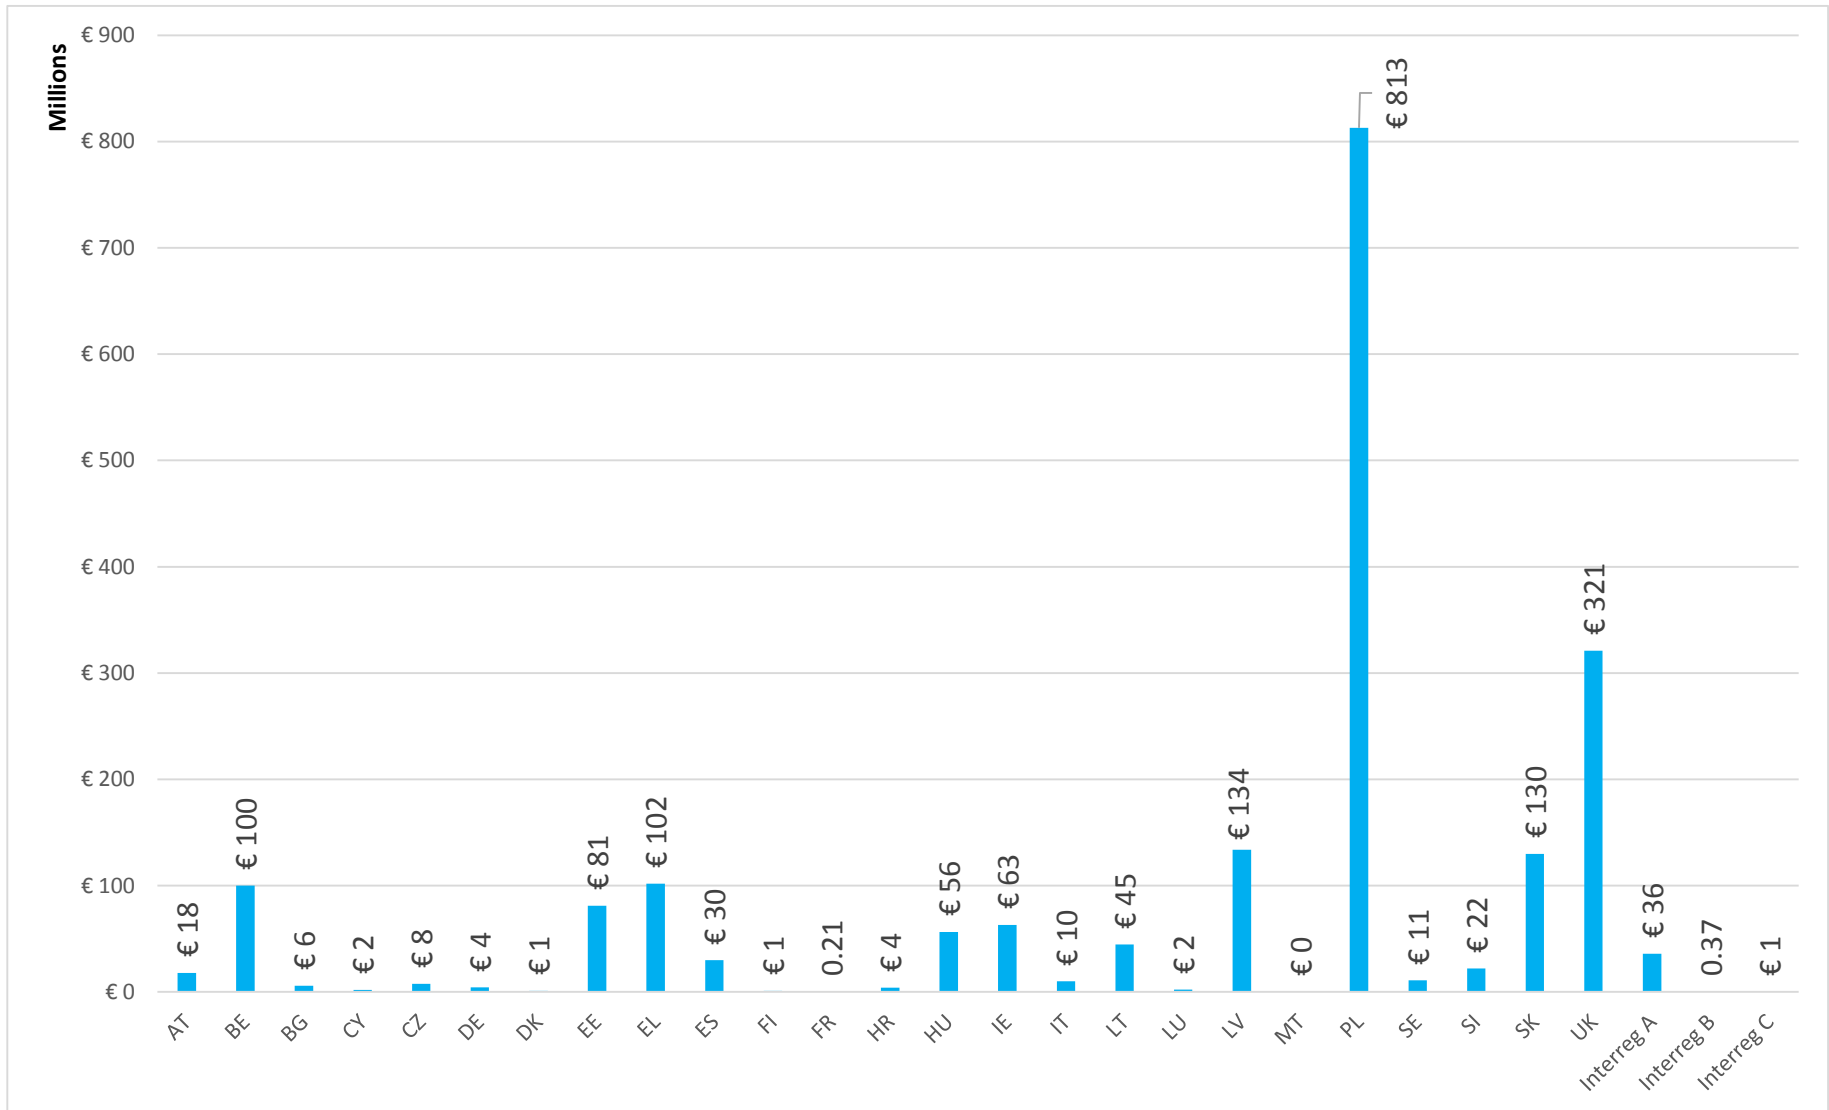

Over 2,500 ESI Funded projects related to healthy workforce, active and healthy ageing and health promotion

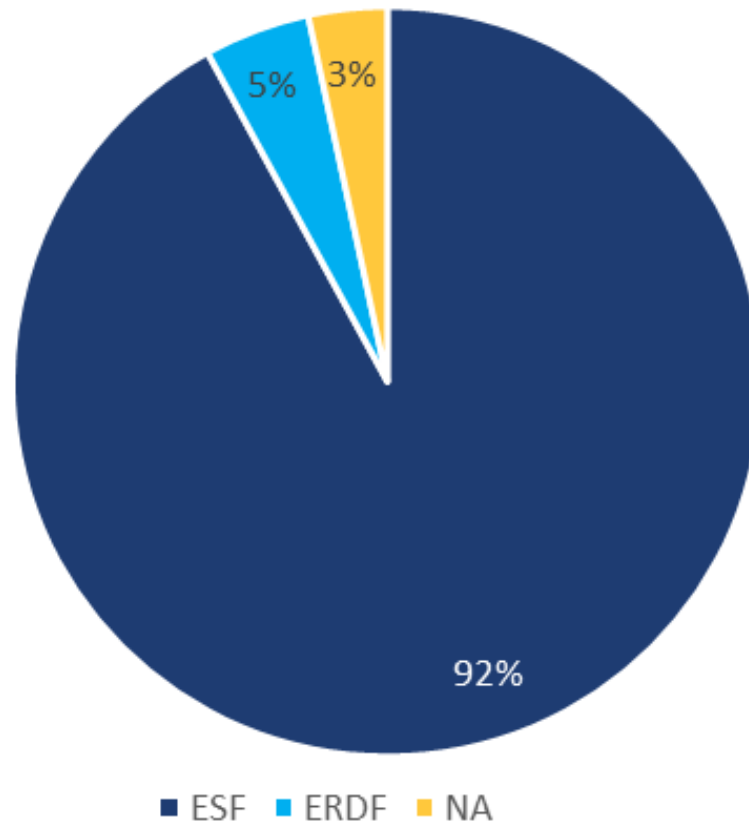

Projects in this theme across MS and Interreg programmes

Expenditures in this theme across Member States and Interreg

Most of the health promotion investments are co-financed by the ESF

HOW ARE ESI FUNDS USED TO SUPPORT
HEALTH PROMOTION, HEALTHY AGEING AND HEALTHY WORKFORCE
DURING 2014-2020?

Highest numbers of projects found in the following sub-themes

- Reintegration of disadvantaged people at the labour market (workplace health and safety)
- Early detection of diseases (health promotion and disease prevention)
- Life-long learning (active and healthy ageing)

Key messages for the theme

- Advantages:
 - Health promotion and disease prevention are cost-effective, allow savings on curative costs
 - Promotion of improvements in employability
 - Combining health with social integration, counteracting social isolation

Key messages for the theme

- Success factors:
 - ESI Funds can complement limited national budgets
 - Pilot projects or small-scale projects can be funded and later rolled out to a wider scope

Key messages for the theme

- Challenges
 - Cross-sectoral integration
 - Sustainability and long-term planning

Q & A

agnieszka.markowska@milieu.be